Club Terms & Conditions

As a Club Member, you agree to the following terms:

- ◆ Your credit card will be charged at least one week before the pick-up or shipment. Flanigan's Distillery & Winery has a very strict privacy policy and all credit information will be kept confidential. Our membership list will never be sold, disclosed or traded.
- ◆ Wines are subject to change due to availability. Members are responsible for all taxes, shipping or handling fees, including shipments that are refused, returned or shipped to an old address. Returned shipments will be charged a 15% restocking fee. Should your club shipment be returned for any reason, the fee to re-ship would be the full rate charged by the common carrier. If there has been some sort of error with delivery, we will be happy to work with you to resolve it.
- ◆ Due to legal restrictions, we are currently only permitted to ship wine within the state of Texas. Texas law prohibits any shipping of Distilled Spirits.
- ◆ If you choose shipping Flanigan's Distillery & Winery will ship your club wine allocations directly to your home or office. No bills, no fuss, we simply charge the credit card provided on your application. Please note that it is your obligation to notify Flanigan's Distillery & Winery of any account changes 15 days before the beginning of a shipment month. Membership is ongoing and may be cancelled with a written notice must be received two weeks prior to allocation month.
- ◆ Shipment dates are subject to change in the event of poor weather. We want you to experience our wines at their optimal condition and we will wait to ship when the weather permits.
- ◆ Please note that verification of age and signature is required at the time of delivery. Carriers make three attempts to deliver, after which the wine is returned to Flanigan's Distillery & Winery. No wine will be delivered to a visibly intoxicated person, and any person unable to produce age verification forfeits the right to receive the shipment until identification is produced. In such circumstances, the order may be held in storage at a local depot until appropriate identification is produced, or it may be shipped back to Flanigan's. If a wine shipment is shipped back to Flanigan's, the customer is responsible for any additional freight charges.
